MEJDI TOURS

Overview

From misty rainforests echoing with the haunting call of the Indri Lemur to vibrant city streets brimming with history and energy, this immersive journey across Madagascar offers a rare glimpse into one of the world's most biodiverse and culturally rich landscapes. Traverse the capital of Antananarivo, trek through primary forests of Andasibe and Mantadia, and witness the legendary Avenue of the Baobabs. Along the way, meet local conservation leaders, artisans, and villagers working to protect their land and heritage.

MEJDI Socially Conscious Experiences

Our socially conscious model focuses on the human element of destinations—the diversity of its people and their stories—in a way that benefits local communities around the world. We specially design our itineraries to immerse you in these cultures. So you don't just visit new places; you become part of them. These human experiences and how we treat the people we meet are what sets MEJDI apart.

- Gain insight into Madagascar's journey from monarchy to colonization to independence in a conversation with a University of Antananarivo historian
- Plant trees alongside local conservationists working to restore Madagascar's endangered forests.
- Hear a lecture from a Primatologist and Conservation Leader to gain unique insights into Madagascar's endemic species and local conservation efforts.
- Visit a Local Village and meet students / young leaders to hear about life in Madagascar and share stories across cultures.
- Engage with artisans and community members at a cooperative at the VOIMMA Association
- Walk among Madagascar's iconic baobabs and learn how FANAMBY are safeguarding these ancient trees through conservation rooted in culture and community.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Antananarivo

Welcome to Madagascar! Upon arrival in the capital, Antananarivo, you'll be greeted by MEJDI representatives and transferred to your hotel.

Settle in and begin acclimating to the rhythm of this highland city.

This evening (6pm), gather for a group dinner and orientation as we begin to explore Madagascar not just as tourists—but as learners, listeners, and guests.

Hotel: Antananarivo (Dinner included)

Day 2: Uncovering Histories—Royal Legacy and Resistance

Explore Tana's layered urban landscape, from bustling Independence Avenue to the colonial architecture of the French Quarter and the panoramic heights of the Royal City.

At day's end, we'll engage in a powerful conversation with a historian from the University of Antananarivo—unpacking the country's shifting identity from monarchy to colonization to independence, and the challenges of modern governance.

Hotel: Antananarivo (Breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 3: Journey to Andasibe—Village Life and Grassroots Action

Travel eastward to Andasibe, passing lush countryside and small villages.

Along the way, visit a renowned reptile farm, then arrive in Andasibe for two days of deep ecological immersion.

This afternoon, join the GUERP Association in a hands-on reforestation project, directly supporting local biodiversity efforts.

Conclude the day visiting a women-run craft cooperative supporting traditional livelihoods.

Hotel: Andasibe (Breakfast and Dinner included)

MEJDI TOURS

Day 4, Monday: Mantadia Primary Forest

Today you'll visit the Mantadia primary forest (located about 1.5 hrs drive - bumpy road).

Mantadia is part of the larger Andasibe-Mantadia protected area and is known for its rich biodiversity, including the iconic Indri indri, the largest living lemur species. The park features dense tropical forest, waterfalls, and diverse flora, including rare orchids and ferns.

Hotel: Andasibe (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included)

Day 5: Lemur Calls and Forest Walks

Rise early to meet the Lemurs again in Analamazaotra National Park.

After lunch, continue to Lemur Island, where you'll come face-to-face with rescued species.

This evening, we'll take a night walk through VOIMMA Forest to search for nocturnal wildlife. As we reflect, consider what it means to protect the vulnerable—not just in nature, but in human society.

Hotel: Andasibe (Breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 6: Conversations with Conservationists

This morning, return to GUERP for a dialogue with the President of the International Primatological Society. Learn about the links between scientific research, education, and policy reform. In the afternoon, journey back to the capital to prepare for our westward exploration.

Along the way, stop in a local village to meet young students, learn about their lives, and hear their hopes for the future.

Hotel: Antananarivo (Breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 7: From Highlands to the Coast—Arrive in Morondava

Fly west to Morondava, a coastal town where mangroves meet baobabs.

This afternoon, meet with the FANAMBY Association, whose work in the Menabe Antimena Protected Area bridges environmental conservation with community empowerment. This is a chance to understand conservation as a local story—not just an international cause.

Hotel: Morondava (Breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 8: Into Akiba Forest—Baobabs and Beyond

Today's journey leads us to the Akiba Forest, where we'll walk beneath the towering, intertwined "Lover's Baobabs" and share a picnic lunch in a secluded glade. This protected area, managed by FANAMBY, is home to endemic species found nowhere else on Earth.

As the sun dips low, we'll arrive at the iconic Avenue of the Baobabs for a sunset that defies words.

Hotel: Morondava (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included)

Day 9: Plant Stories and Tortoise Trails

Visit Zazamalala Botanical Garden to learn how local communities use medicinal plants and sustain critically endangered species. Hear how ecological knowledge is passed across generations, and meet the team behind tortoise conservation efforts. Spend the afternoon resting by the sea or exploring Morondava's vibrant coastal neighborhoods.

Hotel: Morondava (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included)

Day 10: A Sweet Farewell—Chocolate & Reflection

Fly back to Antananarivo for a delicious final experience: a hands-on chocolate-making workshop with a local cooperative working in ethical agriculture. Trace the bean-to-bar journey of Madagascar's famed cacao and create your own treats to take home.

As we gather for our final meal together, we'll reflect on the people, stories, and places that have transformed us.

Hotel: Antananarivo (Breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 11: Departure

Enjoy a leisurely morning and group transfer to the airport. While your time in
