Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival [Guide, Transfer only]

Arrive in Hanoi and transfer to your accommodation to recover after a long flight. In the evening, join your group for introductions, dinner and discussion with a local historian or journalist on Vietnamese history and current affairs.

Overnight: La Siesta Hotel Classic, Hanoi [D]

Day 2: Hanoi Introductions [Guide, Transportation]

Appreciate the artistic and culinary wonders of Hanoi while navigating the colors and bustle that characterize a modern Vietnamese city. Begin at a history museum to learn about Ho Chi Minh's legacy then visit the Temple of Literature (Temple of Confucius), the oldest university in Vietnam dating to the 11th century. Enjoy lunch at a "hidden" restaurant tucked away on the backstreets of Hanoi, for an introduction to local cuisine. Rest at your hotel before concluding the day in the eclectic Old Quarters of the Hoan Kiem District, sampling a variety of food wonders that have earned Hanoi the title: "street food capital of the world!"

Overnight: La Siesta Hotel Classic, Hanoi [B, L, D - food tour]

Day 3: US & Vietnam Relations, a Retrospective [Guide, Transportation]

Begin the day at the "small turtle tower" on the Sword Lake, then continue your exploration of Hanoi by foot before visiting the famous Hoa Lo Prison (also known as Hanoi Hilton). Meet with a Vietnamese veteran for personal reflections on the period of US-Vietnamese conflict and legacy of the war. Discuss spirituality with a Buddhist nun at their monastery before an afternoon and evening on your own, taking time to explore the bustling city at your own pace.

Overnight: La Siesta Hotel Classic, Hanoi [B]

Day 4: Ninh Binh [Guide, Transportation]

Set out early for Ninh Binh, famous for the Karst scenery around the village of Tama Coc, and sometimes called the "Halong Bay on land." Visit local temples before boarding private boats take you through the winding rivers of Red and Ma through massive rock formations and caves. Have lunch at a local restaurant before an easy bicycle ride or casual stroll through scattered rice fields to gorgeous mountain views. Return to Hanoi in the evening for dinner on your own.

Overnight: La Siesta Hotel Classic, Hanoi [B, L]

Day 5: My Son Sanctuary [Guide, Transportation]

Take a morning flight to Da Nang, continuing upon arrival to My Son Sanctuary. The UNESCO World Heritage site dates from the 4th to 13th centuries and is located in the heart of a beautiful valley, surrounded by high mountains that feed the Thu Bon River. Marvel at sandstone bas-reliefs depicting scenes from Hindu mythology, learn about the My Son civilization's devotion to Hindu deities like Krishna, Vishnu and Shiva. Head to Hoi An, check-in to your hotel, and have dinner as a group.

Overnight: Bel Marina, Hoi An³ [B, L, D]

Day 6: Traditions of Hoi An - Monday, January 12 [Guide, Transportation]

Explore Hoi An, an ancient city noted for its well preserved architectural mix of Chinese, French, Japanese and Vietnamese styles. Attend a "tea appreciation" ceremony with a local master before reaching the Old Town to discover a blend of traditional treasures and cultural influences from historical traders. Learn about the city's history while wandering through pagoda-lined streets, passing a Chinese assembly hall, and crossing the Japanese Covered Bridge. In the afternoon, meet a master crafter who demonstrates how to fashion a traditional lantern, an aesthetic mainstay of Hoi An. Attend an evening bamboo circus followed by dinner at leisure.

Overnight: Bel Marina, Hoi An [B, L]

Day 7: Hoi An Sites & Surroundings [Guide, Transportation]

After a morning "tea appreciation" with a local master, continue exploring Hoi An's Old Town. Begin the day with an engaging workshop on traditional fishing methods such as casting nets, followed by a culinary experience making bánh xèo, or Vietnamese "happy pancakes." After lunch, take time at leisure or join an optional cycling trip (cost not included) to one of the neighboring villages to learn about rural life from local residents. Dinner is on your own this evening.

Overnight: Bel Marina, Hoi An [B, L]

Day 8: Ho Chi Minh Welcome [Guide, Transportation]

Fly to Ho Chi Minh (Saigon) and head into the city for a guided tour exploring the city's key sites. After lunch, visit the photo journalism exhibit at the War Remnants Museum to better understand how conflict was covered by the press. Check in to your hotel in the late afternoon, followed by a free evening.

Overnight: La Siesta Premium Saigon, Ho Chi Minh City [B, L]

Day 9: Chu Chi Tunnels [Guide, Transportation]

Spend the morning in meaningful reflection on the legacy of armed struggle. Walk through, and meet a veteran in the infamous network of Cu Chi tunnels, used by the Viet Cong as their main base of operations for the Tet offensive in 1968. The over 200km of underground tunnels offer perspective on what the Vietnamese would have experienced on the frontline. Meet with former guerrilla fighters in southern Vietnam for an intimate perspective on a stark reality. Explore the city beyond conflict in the afternoon, passing through bustling markets and thoroughfares. Gather in the evening for a festive farewell dinner.
