Arrive in Belgrade and transfer to your hotel. Meet the group for a welcome dinner and brief orientation in the evening.

Hotel: Mama Shelter hotel, Belgrade, Serbia (dinner included)

Day 2: Belgrade Old Town (1 Guide, No Transportation - Walking Tour)

Explore Belgrade, Serbia's capital at a historic crossroads of the Roman and Ottoman Empires.

Walk through the Stari Grad (Old Town) and along Knez Mihailova Street, then continue to Belgrade Fortress and Kalemegdan Park for views over the Danube and Sava Rivers.

Visit landmarks including the Despot's Gate, Sahat Tower, and the Victor Monument. After lunch in a traditional kafana, stroll through the bohemian quarter of Skadarlija to meet a local painter or curator for discussion on the area's artistic culture.

Hotel: Mama Shelter hotel, Belgrade, Serbia (breakfast and lunch included)

Day 3: The Outskirts of Belgrade (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Travel outside Belgrade into the countryside of Vojvodina, Serbia's multicultural northern province, for a visit to the Slovak-Serbian town of Kovačica, renowned for its vibrant naïve art tradition—inscribed on the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. Explore the Museum of Naïve and Marginal Art, meeting artists who continue to depict village life in colorful, dream-like works. Learn about the centuries-old process of rakija distillation, taste local varieties, and enjoy a home-cooked meal in a rustic village setting.

In the afternoon, create your very own naïve artwork in a workshop led by local artists.

Hotel: Mama Shelter hotel, Belgrade, Serbia (breakfast and lunch included)

Day 4: Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Fly to Sarajevo in the morning, take a food tour with Balkantina for lunch, sampling dishes like burek, somun bread, and tufahija, while exploring how history, empire, and migration have shaped Sarajevo's culinary identity. Walk through the Baščaršija and Austro-Hungarian quarters, where diverse religious landmarks stand side by side, offering insight into the city's layered past and pursuit of coexistence.

After lunch, ride the gondola to Mount Trebević for sweeping views, and walk along the abandoned Olympic bobsled track, a powerful symbol of the city's past.

In the evening, meet a local photojournalist over dinner (possibly visit their gallery).

Hotel: Colors Inn Sarajevo, Bosnia (breakfast, lunch and dinner included)

Day 5: The Outskirts of Sarajevo (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Journey into the Bosnian countryside to explore Bobovac, the fortified medieval capital of the Bosnian Kingdom. A guided walk through the ruins reveals the remains of royal residences and churches where Bosnian kings were crowned and buried.

Continue to Mijakovići, recognized as one of The Most Beautiful Villages of Bosnia and Herzegovina, for a traditional lunch in a local household, experiencing authentic rural hospitality.

In the afternoon, visit the Franciscan Monastery at Kraljeva Sutjeska, founded in the 14th century, home to a remarkable library, historic manuscripts, and sacred art that have preserved Bosnia's religious and cultural identity through centuries.

If available, meet local women who maintain the rare tradition of Catholic hand tattoos, an ancient practice once common in central Bosnia, offering a unique insight into intangible cultural heritage and remembrance of the last Bosnian Queen - Katarina.

Hotel: Colors Inn Sarajevo, Bosnia (breakfast and lunch included)

Day 6: The City of Mostar (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Depart Sarajevo, traveling south along a scenic route through Herzegovina's dramatic mountain terrain above the Neretva River. Stop in Konjic to view its elegant Ottoman-era stone bridge and enjoy a traditional Bosnian coffee.

Continue to the Old City of Mostar, with its cobblestone streets, Ottoman architecture, and artisan shops. Climb the minaret of a historic mosque for panoramic views of the UNESCO World Heritage site Stari Most, a 16th century bridge destroyed during the war and later rebuilt as a symbol of reconciliation.

In the evening, visit the stunning Emporia winery on the Herzegovina Wine Route for dinner paired with regional wines, discovering Herzegovina's centuries-old viticulture and enjoying a relaxed meal amid the vineyards.

Hotel: Pasha hotel, Mostar, Bosnia (breakfast and Dinner included)

Day 7: Countryside from Mostar to Dubrovnik (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Depart Mostar in the morning and travel south through Herzegovina's dramatic karst landscapes.

Stop at Radimlja, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most significant necropolises of medieval tombstones (stećci) in the Balkans. The finely carved stones, dating from the 15th and 16th centuries, depict knights, crosses, and symbolic motifs that reflect medieval life and beliefs in the region.

Continue into the fertile valley of Popovo Polje, known for its vineyards, orchards, and traditional preserves. Visit a local food producer to taste regional specialties such as honey, figs, or cheeses, and learn about techniques passed down through generations. Continue to Vjetrenica Cave, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and visit the nearby 16th century Orthodox Christian monastery Zavala.

In the evening, take a tour of Trebinje, a picturesque town nestled by the Trebišnjica River and framed by vineyards. Stroll through its Ottoman-era old town and shaded plane-tree square.

Hotel: SP Integra hotel, Trebinje, Bosnia (breakfast and lunch included)

Day 8: Walls of Dubrovnik (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Begin the day crossing the border into Croatia and arriving in Dubrovnik, a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its walled Old City along the Mediterranean, which bears the marks of its glorious medieval and Baroque legacy. Take a guided walking tour exploring Dubrovnik's architectural treasures and scenic coastline, as well as its pop culture fame as a filming location for Game of Thrones.

After lunch, visit the Rector's Palace, once the seat of the Republic of Ragusa, and explore its chambers that showcase the city's political and artistic history. Continue to the Franciscan Monastery, home to one of the oldest pharmacies in Europe, before enjoying some free time to wander the narrow streets, browse artisan shops, or walk the famous city walls at your own pace.

Take a cable car to the nearby Srdj Hill to enjoy a spectacular view and sunset.

This evening head to the gallery of War Photo LTD, where a renowned international photojournalist shares his experience documenting conflict in the Balkans and beyond.

Hotel: Lero hotel, Dubrovnik, Croatia (breakfast and lunch included)

---

Day 9: Welcome to Montenegro (1 Guide, Private Transportation)

Cross into Montenegro, journeying along the scenic Adriatic coastline to the breathtaking Bay of Kotor. Explore the fortified medieval Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site where Venetian palaces, stone alleyways, and centuries-old churches reveal the city's layered past.

Visit the Kotor Ceramic Studio, a family-run pottery workshop, to meet local artisans and learn how traditional forms and motifs are preserved in clay.

In the afternoon, board a boat across the bay to the island church of Our Lady of the Rocks, whose richly decorated interior reflects centuries of seafaring devotion. Continue by boat to the famous Blue Cave, where sunlight illuminates the waters in dazzling shades of turquoise. Return to Kotor in the early evening with time to relax before dinner.

Hotel: Monte Cristo hotel, Kotor, Montenegro (breakfast and lunch included)
