Day 3: Waterways & Coastal View - Monday, November 8

Depart Tunis and travel south, tracing part of the route once supplied by the great Roman water system that carried mountain spring water to ancient Carthage. Visit the elegant Zaghouan Water Temple, constructed during the reign of Hadrian as the monumental source shrine for the aqueduct system, before continuing to the Mediterranean coast and the historic city of Monastir. Explore the Ribat, where stone ramparts, watchtowers, and interior courtyards offer sweeping views over the sea and insight into the city's early defensive and religious role, then continue to the Bourguiba Mausoleum and Museum to learn about Tunisia's modern state formation. Enjoy free time in the late afternoon, then gather for a group dinner.

OVERNIGHT: Regency Hotel & Spa, Monastir

MEALS: Breakfast, lunch and dinner included

Day 4: Ancient Relic, Agricultural Heritage - Tuesday, November 9

Depart Monastir and travel inland to the magnificent El Jem Amphitheatre, one of the largest and best-preserved Roman colosseums in the world, where its monumental scale offers a glimpse into the grandeur of Roman North Africa. Continue through Tunisia's olive-growing heartland to a family-owned olive estate, for a guided tour of the groves and olive mill, learning about the production of Tunisia's renowned olive oil including samples of locally produced goods and regional specialties. In the late afternoon, arrive in Sfax, Tunisia's second-largest city and an important commercial center, for an introductory walk through the historic district before settling in for the evening.

OVERNIGHT: Les Olivier Palace, Sfax

MEALS: Breakfast, lunch and dinner included

Day 5: Sahara Heritage - Wednesday, November 10

Depart Sfax in the morning, traveling south into the rugged landscapes of the Dahar Mountains. Enjoy a traditional lunch hosted by a local Amazigh community, then set out on a 4x4 excursion across rocky plateaus and desert tracks, exploring the dramatic terrain that has shaped life on the edge of the Sahara for centuries. Continue to the picturesque mountain village of Toujane, where stone houses, traditional weaving, and panoramic viewpoints offer insight into the region's enduring heritage. Continue towards Tamezret, learning how generations of families adapted to the desert climate through underground architecture. Check-in and enjoy dinner with expansive views across the surrounding landscape.

OVERNIGHT: Dar Ayed Tamezret

MEALS: Breakfast, lunch and dinner included

Day 6: Desert Dwellings - Thursday, November 11

Head back through Ancient Matmata in the morning for a closer look at the distinctive troglodyte heritage of the region and visit to the Sidi Idriss underground hotel, whose cave dwellings famously appeared in Star Wars. After further exploration in town, head north through Tunisia's central plains. Pause for lunch and tea in the rural area around Bir Ali Ben Khelifa, offering a glimpse into daily life and hospitality in the country's agricultural heartland. Reach Kairouan in the early evening and settle into one of North Africa's most important historic and spiritual centers.

OVERNIGHT: Hotel La Kasbah, Kairouan

MEALS: Breakfast, lunch and dinner included
